Dont Eat Me!

Imagine that you are Linc and you have just turned into a turkey. It's Thanksgiving day and your family is preparing for the feast. When you walk into the dining room you see your mom standing with an empty white platter.

Write a persuasive essay to convince your family that they should not eat YOU. You must give at least three good reasons why you would not make a good Thanksgiving dinner and give details to support each reason. You should also suggest an alternative meal that your family could enjoy.
